Well Joyce. I can really say that you made my senior year exciting. I am so glad that we have a friendship I know will last. Whatever we do or wherever we go nothing will change this. Thank you for being there when I needed a friend because if you weren't I would have lost my sanity (not that I have much now because of the wolf but you are just as crazy because of the man) I hope you will look at this year from now and laugh (or will you....?) Even when you leave I will still think of the fun times we shared and hope to have many more.

I love you Take care and may God (as who we you think)

Bless you.

Pieces of a Dream...

Dreams

To Joyce,
I know we haven't been the close friends we should have lately, but I am glad we are now. Thank you for what you said in my annual.
I wish you good luck in the future. If you ever have a problem or need someone to talk to, I will be there for you.

Our dreams and aspirations give our lives meaning. While different people have different ideas of fulfillment and success, we all need something for which to strive. The spirit of Woodland is comprised of a diverse collection of ideas, opinions, and perspectives. Whether we lean toward academics, athletics, social growth, or personal awareness as a measure of our individual success, one thing is constantly true: We are all here to grasp all the experience we can toward realizing our goals. In doing so, we amplify a separate goal—the continuance in the Woodland spirit for those to come. Through our successes in various areas of interest, we contribute to, and provide the assurance of the revitalization of the Woodland spirit of achievement for our successors.

Warrior Spirit

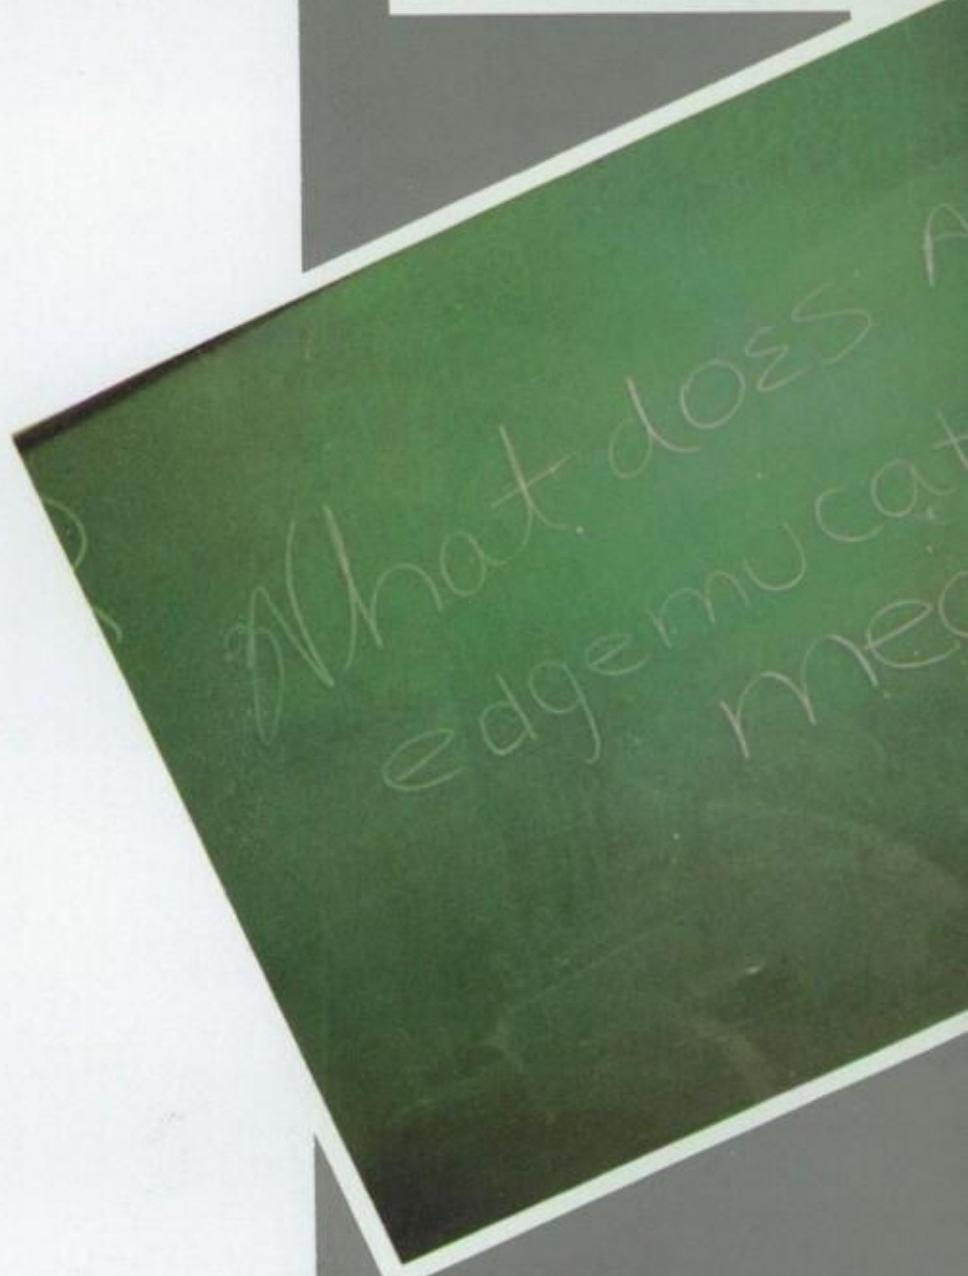

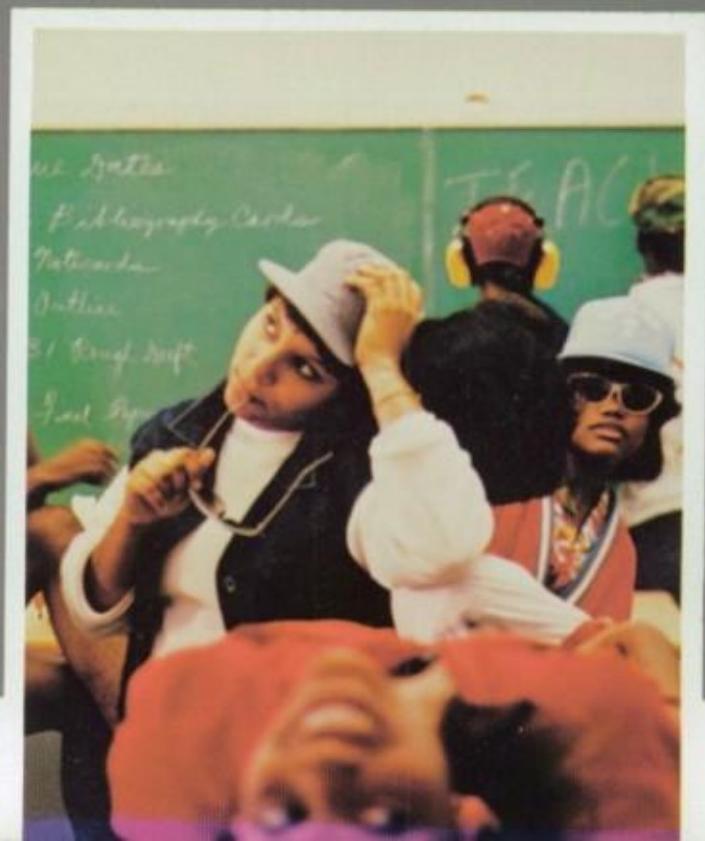

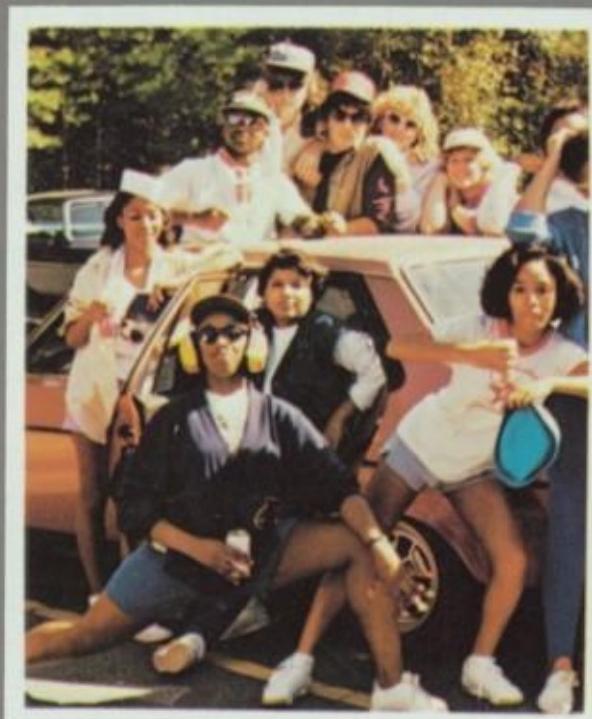

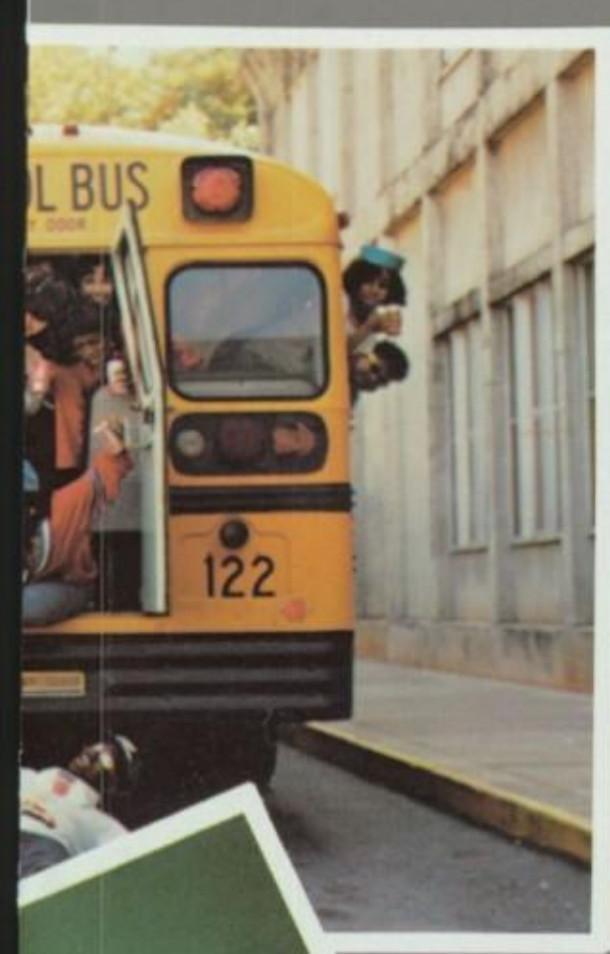

School spirit gives a student body unity. With this unity, obtained by athletic support almost any worth—while endeavor can be accomplished. Warrior spirit can be seen in the pep rallies and large turnouts at sports events.

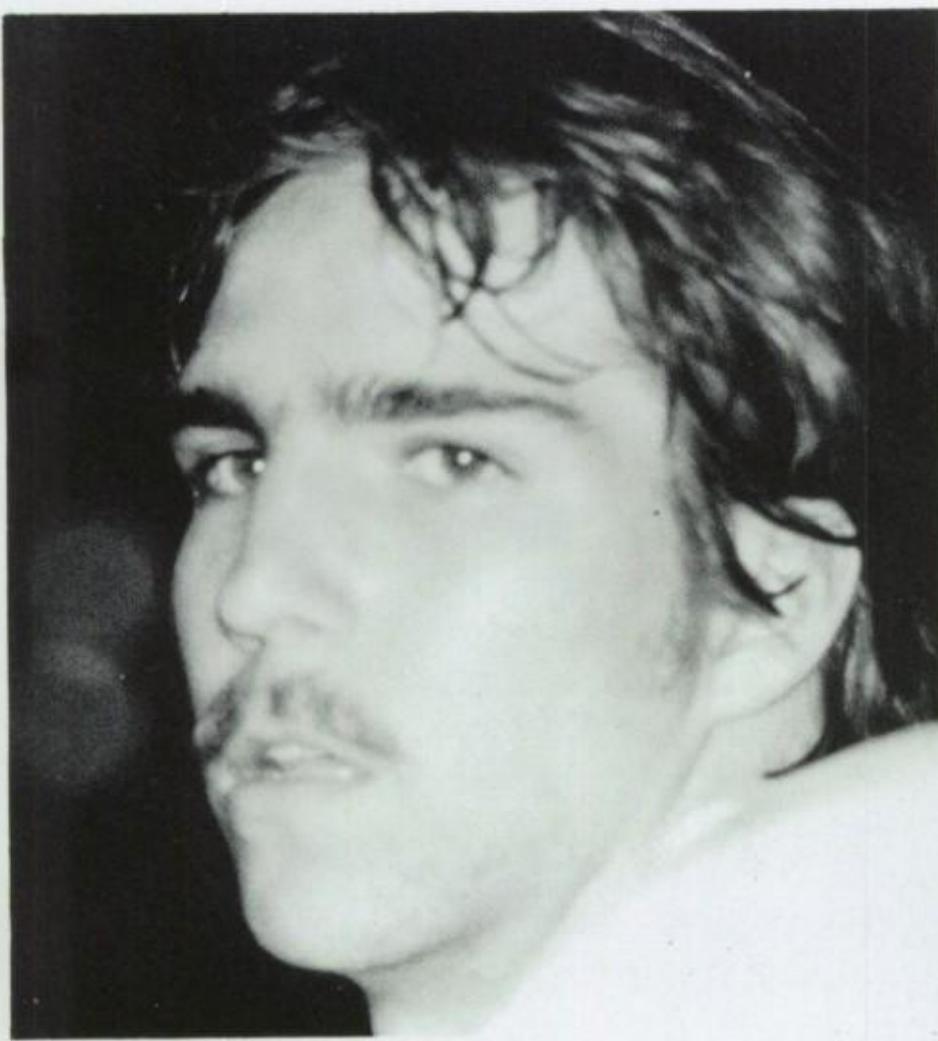

No No

These pages are dedicated to the things that students are not allowed to have or do during school. Regardless to the rules, these students definitely found a way to break them.

James Abrams, Principal B.S. Morris Brown University, M.A. New York University, Ga. State University. The Game of life can be compared to a TRACK RACE so as the track coach says to his runners, I say to each student at Woodland:

"Dig your starting hole deep and firm"
(Get a good foundation by applying yourself) "Lunge out with all the power within you"
(Put forth your best efforts at all time)
"Run the race with patience"
(Don't be distracted by outside influences nor try shortcuts to success)
And in the END my friend, you will be successful.

Our football season would not have been complete without our jamming band. The band under the superb direction of the director, drum majors, and the line captains did an excellent job. In every performance they made their very best was displayed. The job they did and the effort they made bought them many invitations to perform. Some of the places they attended and gave the audience a great treat were the GMEA Band Festival and All-State Band Festival in Savannah. The Staff wishes to thank the band for being the #1

Pam Williams doing her stuff on the field!

The Drill Team and Majorette squads for the 1985-86 year participated in many activities. Under the sponsorship of Mrs. Freida Smith the groups captured 1st place in summer camp at West Georgia College in Carrollton, but they won't stop now. In their strive to be the Best in the nation they will be attending another camp in the near future.

The halftime shows would have been just that without the majorettes "half a show." This year's Woodland High majorettes were outstanding! They put in long hard hours of practice to improve their technique and add style to their performance; and that they did. Their performances were real crowd dazzlers!

Drill team captain Yvette Terry led the group in a successful season. They performed at football games and basketball games. Public appearances were made too. They along with the majorettes and band showed Atlanta their latest steps at the Morris Brown parade. Besides working hard the group spent time at play. Get togethers to make tassels for boots were quite hilarious. Yvette wishes the Drill Team the best next year and she leaves with them the thought, "Don't take the fun out of being on the Drill Team."

"Yes, the chorale does warm up!" Even though the group consisted of many talented youngsters, warmups were still necessary. Professional though they were, practice did make the performances perfect. The chorale can accredit their professionalism to their director, Mrs. Dorothy Carter. Under her leadership the group made special appearances at the Choral Festival and the Baccalaureate Services. They also graced the community with their annual Christmas concert and cabaret shows. This year's chorale worked hard to present us with shows better than Broadway!

Chorale concerts frequently included solo pieces, such as this one featuring Miss Yvette Terry.

Woodland's Art Club was totally awesome! They lived up to every aspect of their motto . . . organized to promote, assist, and participate in the aesthetic development of art activities within the school and the community. The club presented the school with their hard work in many ways. They collaborated with the fashion design class to present us with a magnificent fashion show. Many of the students participated in the arts festival & exhibition to bring home trophies and certificates. Others in school activites included the Halloween decoration contest and the Christmas door decoration contest which they held to promote schoolwide participation in exercising the creative abilities.

The National Honor Society consists of students who have maintained at least a 3.3 grade point average throughout their high school careers, and who exhibit the traits of Character, Leadership, Service, and Scholarship. This year, members of the National Honor Society were active in providing tutorial assistance for Woodland students who needed it. Through this and other activities, the National Honor Society was a prime contributor to Woodland.

Close up, sponsored by Mr. Thornton, is an organization designed to give students the opportunity to see how their national government is run. This past year the group took their annual trip to Washington. The members expressed to the student body that they felt this trip was much more enlightening than the others, in that they participated in abortion rallies dealing with the pros and cons of this national concern. To the group, it was a moving and memorable experience.

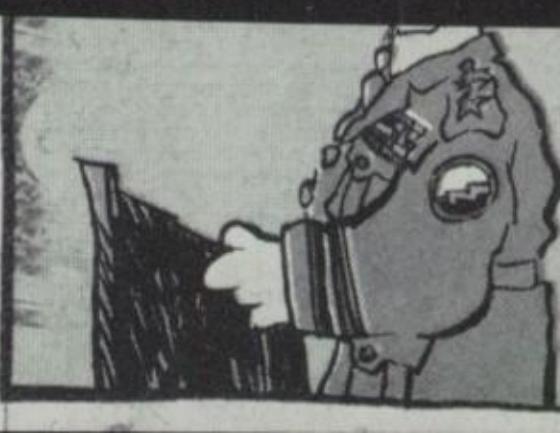

Officers—Kim Rogers, President; Shelley Northern, Vice-President; Yvonne Terry, Secretary; Preston Harden, Treasurer

Active members—David Martinez, Beth Sullivan, Marco Porcile, Andy Halm, not pictured Terese Conwell. These members had a field trip to Washington, D.C. to learn more about our government.

The Student Council helped to make this past school year a success. They helped the teachers promote the true meaning of striving for excellence. The words of encouragement they offered geared toward making Woodland a great school brought a lot of school student involvement for their effort. Their efforts did not stop there. The group led the school in the production of Woodland's 4th annual Homecoming. The executive council also aided the administration in the making of Woodland's Birthday Tea a great success.

The Future Business Leaders of America consists of high school students participating in business related programs. They were represented in many competitions, displaying their various talents and skills. They showed their salesmanship skills by selling candy grams of various kinds. The tea the group gave the teachers was very well planned and business like. The group also received many outstanding awards in the areas of computer science.

Future Homemakers of America were really on top of things in the absence of their sponsor. They sponsored a can food drive during Christmas and after their hard work they had a Christmas party. They planned on making little treats to take to members of a community convalescent home. The group did an excellent job on showing their school spirit in participating in activities which gave them, as well as Woodland, notoriety.

This year's Anchor Club lived up to every aspect of their motto: "Building respect for the rights of others and practicing thoughtfulness and helping others." They showed that they really cared for those around them through their participation in community activities. They performed the flag ceremony for the PTSA meeting in October and served as aides in the Fulton County Special Olympics. Some of their activities around the school were sponsoring the Teacher Appreciation Luncheon at Valentines and preparing Easter Baskets for the needy.

Toyceme well this is it, its time to break out the Camp, but we've had some fun times together during our high school years, we been through a lot with our ups and down, but I know we will over come these down, I don't know what happens to bring about these down that we have been through, but I have or did at the beginning set them aside and forgotten them, because we started off as friends and I know I am not going to end up not being friends, but remember Toy, I will always remember you and the good times that we have share and I hope you will do the same what ever you do Toy strive, achieve and Jaylene, This is what we have been waiting for. Life has taught us many lessons about people and ourselves. When we were good friends we had some great and fun times. Now after all of this that has gone on this year, it still doesn't matter to me anymore. We can be associates, but I don't think it will ever be what it once was. Try to keep yourself straight and out of trouble. Your life will hopefully be a very successful one. Don't worry at have me bad feeling towards you it is just a divided friendship that I will always remember. Maybe, one day you will find the person of your dreams. I hope he is everything you ever wanted. I also hope you both will be deserving of each other. You can still call every once in awhile to see if I am still living.

Sorry for being so messy.

WOODLAND

WARRIORS

The varsity football team of Woodland High is just that, "The Varsity Football Team of Woodland High" which in itself says a lot. The team is composed of about 40 players which work together on both offense and defense to manipulate the plans the other team may have to win the game. Each player of our team plays a very important role, but there are a certain few that excel even more. The Golden Helmet was awarded to Eldred Freeman, the most valuable player was Mario Black, the Best Offensive Player was Tim Murdock, the Best Defensive Player was Pop Underwood, and the Captain and Coaches' award was given to Sean Dupree. These are only a few of their accomplishments.

B-TEAM

When the season began, the coaching staff had mixed feelings about the upcoming season. Eleven sophomores and freshman had made the varsity team and the B-team would somehow have to do without those talented players. However the players who comprised the B-team possessed enthusiasm about the tough schedule ahead. Combining their enthusiasm with talent, good practice habits and an intense hatred for losing, the team under the leadership of team captains, Teraino Albritton and Carlos Traylor, posted the second best record (3-3-1) in Woodland B-Team football history.

CHEERLEADERS

The 1985-86 Varsity Cheerleaders were an exceptional group of young ladies which consisted of five seniors and two juniors. This summer the cheerleaders attended camp at Woodward Academy. They received two superior ribbons and won first-runners-up at the Atlanta Superstar Cheerleading Camp. The Varsity Cheerleaders were in many ways a part of our school. They put on pep rallies and cheered at both football and basketball games to boost school spirit. None of these accomplishments could have been possible without the help of their sponsor, Ms. Peebles. It can just be said that they were an All-American supersquad that loved to cheer the Warriors on to victory!

B-TEAM

Our B-Team Cheerleaders have had a very exciting year. The girls attended cheerleading camp in the summer, receiving Excellent and Superior ribbons in camp. They competed against other B-Team squads. With these successes, they came back to Woodland ready to put their all into cheering for Woodland's winning B-Team Football and Basketball teams. The B-Team cheerleaders also helped the Varsity cheerleaders in many of their endeavors, the most noticeable ones being at the pep rallies and Homecoming. They have enjoyed themselves and have performed excellently.

VARSITY

The 1985-86 Varsity Boys Basketball team was a fine team. The team consist of six seniors, two juniors and five sophomores. The players worked together for rebounds, fieldgoals, and points which often led them to control of the game.

Once in control, the Warriors could then lead their team on to victory.

BASKETBALL

During the trying season of Woodland High's Varsity Boys team, there were many accomplishments made, some good and some not so good. The team chose Mario Black as the most valuable player. Kevin Walcott, one of the teams starters was injured during a game.

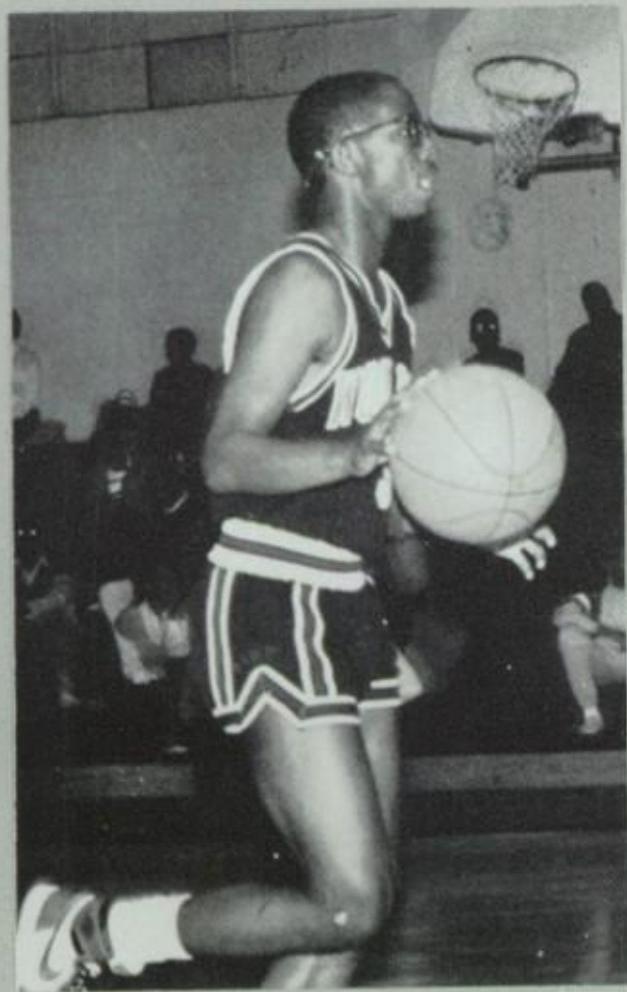

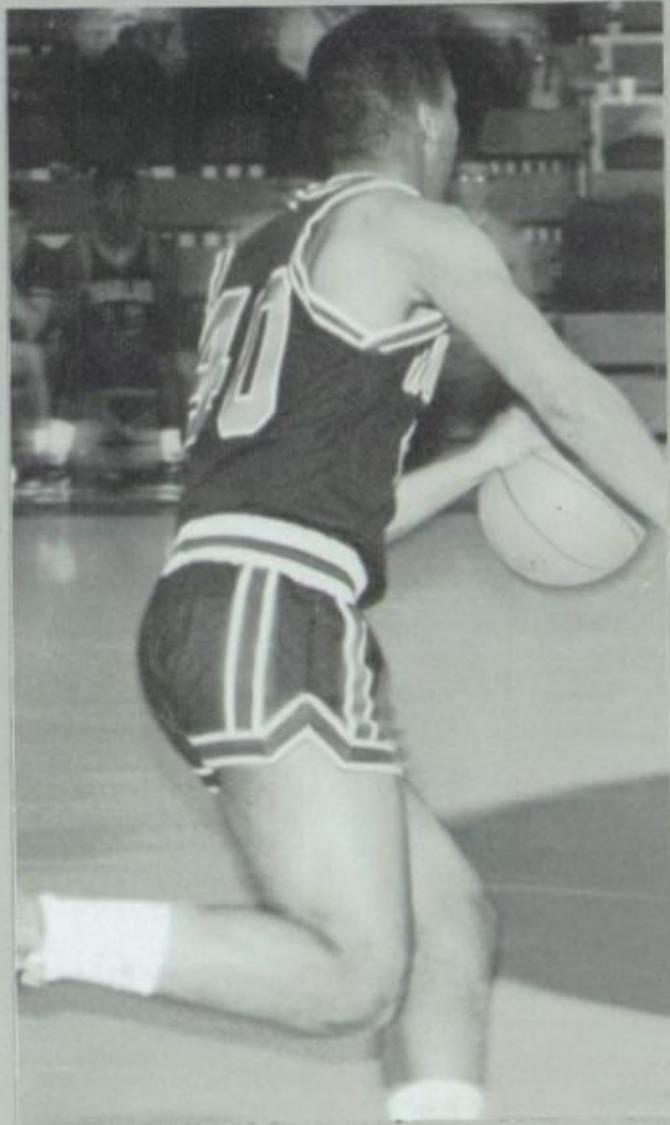

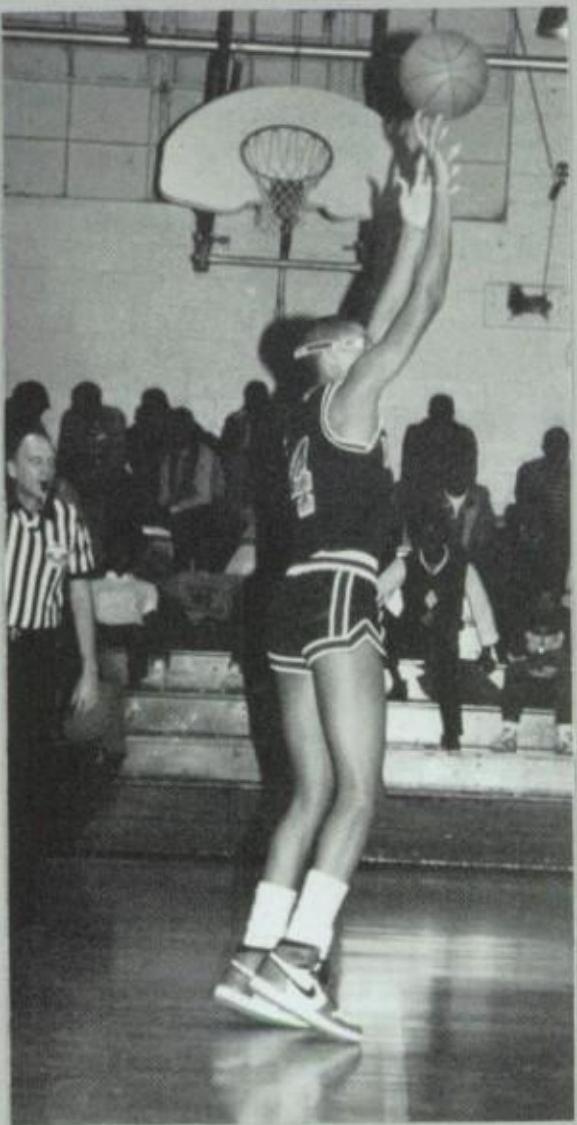

These are just a few of the things the team went through and still came out on top.

GO BIG SILVER

The Boy's Junior Varsity Basketball Team consisted of thirteen talented and ambitious young men who knew their sport well. This year, the members pooled their athletic resources to form a cooperative, eager, and bright team who won many games for Woodland. The Boy's JV basketball team has certainly done their part in making Woodland proud, and keeping school spirit up to par.

VARSITY

The Lady Warriors proved to be an excellent team that worked well together. Coached by Ms. Atchison the team had a winning season. With only two seniors on the team the Lady Warriors have established themselves to be a highly competitive team. Placing second in sub-region the Lady Warriors went on to play in 5-AA region. They showed great potential and drive that fine athletes have. There will never be another varsity girls basketball team as fine as this one, because of the qualities they possess.

The 1985-86 Warrior wrestlers were a very successful team. The team saw many young hopefuls shoot for victory as well as personal satisfaction. TJ Smith, one of the younger wrestlers went on to become the AA State Champion. The wrestlers were led by outstanding team members such as Kevin Stillwell, Ned Vandiver and Michael Witherspoon, who under the direction of Coach Little succeeded in having one of their best seasons yet. The team placed third in the South Metro Tournament and will continue to be optimistic as they strive for an even higher goal.

TRACK

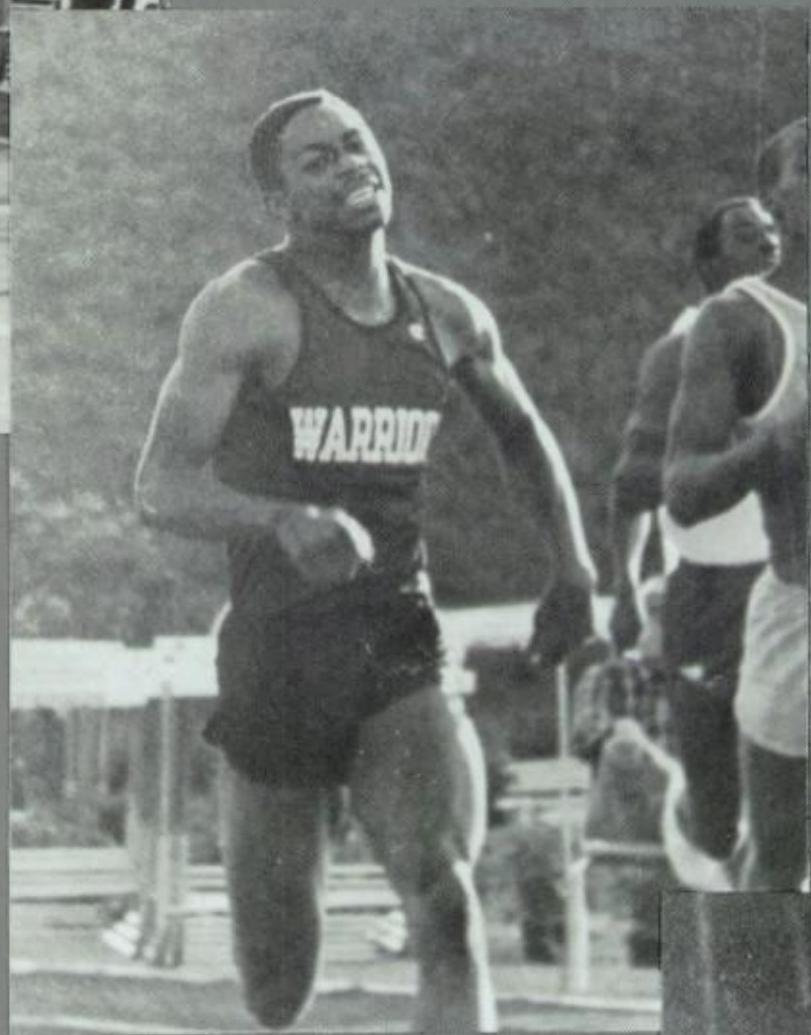

The Woodland Warriors Track Team for the 1985-86 year was excellent. Showing an abundance of energy, they succeeded in winning several prestigious meets. Bernard Heard, the team's most valuable runner, brought the team to many of their victories. He also participated in the 1985 Junior Olympics. Everyone on the team did an excellent job and we are indeed proud.

SAFE!

The 1985-86 Baseball team was a great team. The boys worked together as a team to defeat many opponents and to move further up in their region. Even though, the team started the season minus a pitcher, they worked to make the most of it. The starting pitcher, Tim Murdock, was out at the beginning of the season as was Mark Birdow. Regardless of the team's setbacks, they pulled for perfection.

TENNIS

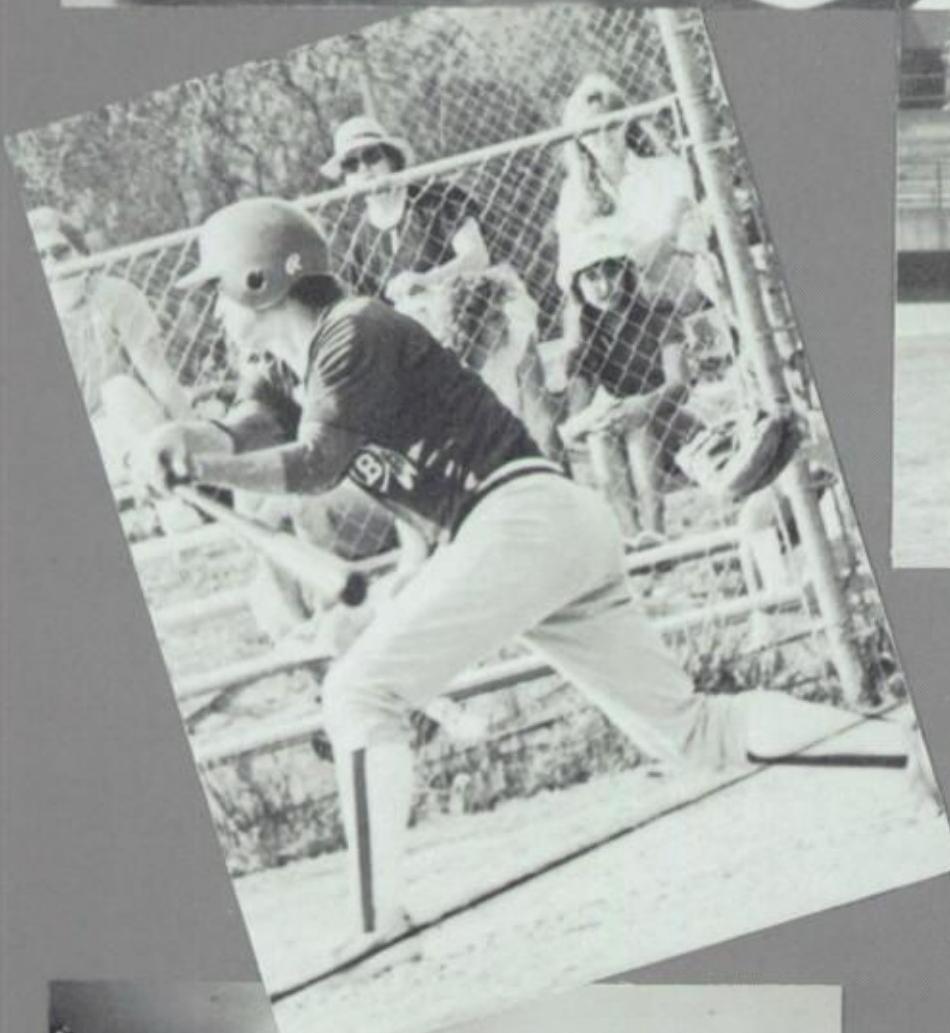

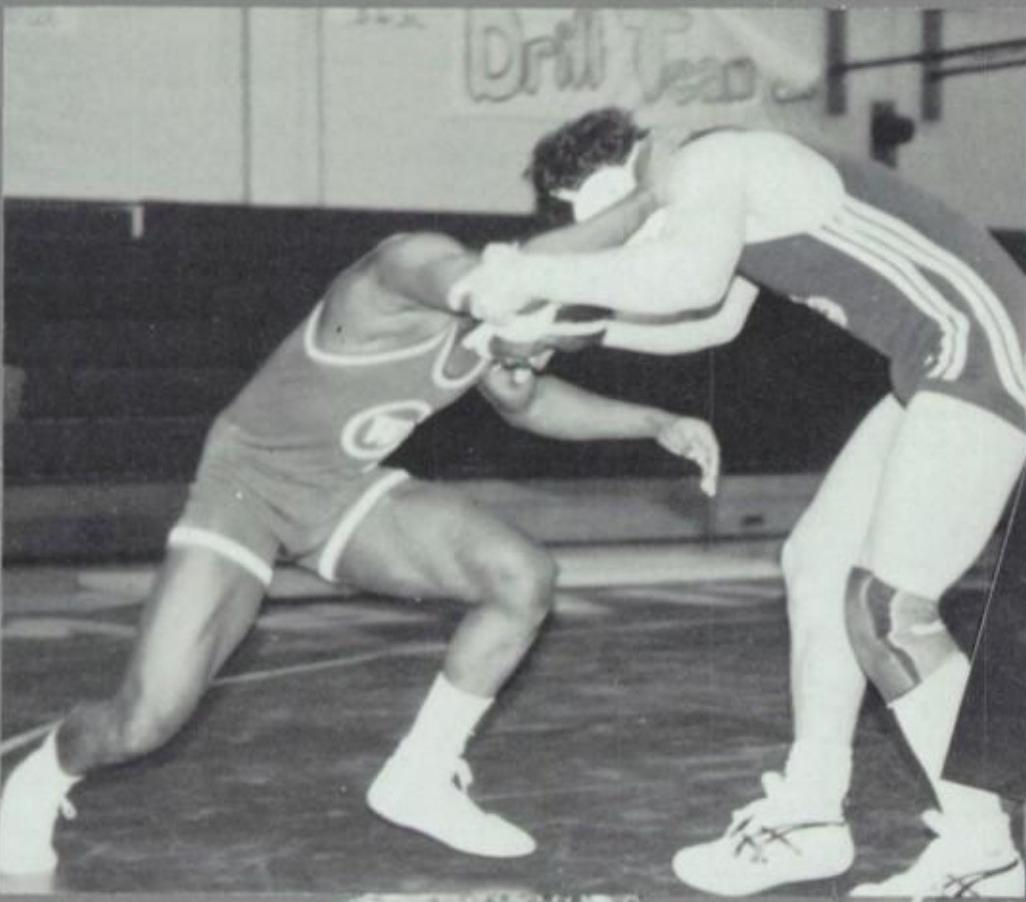

While the members of the tennis team consists mainly of underclassmen, their accomplishments seem to exceed their years. Last year the boys team won the 5AA championship, achieving a success that made all Woodland proud. One of the team's most talented members, Tony Moses, also won the 5AA single championship. Where tennis is concerned, this has been an excellent year for Woodland. Because the members are young, Woodland can look forward to more great tennis from the team.

Pageant

This year Woodland hosted its first annual Mr. and Miss Woodland Pageant. All eligible guys and girls were given the opportunity to model their favorite sportswear, dresswear and formal wear ensembles. However, good looks and charm were not the only categories! The contestants were posed a question to determine how well they could speak on their feet and in front of an audience. Judges scored the contestants in the three fashion categories and the mystery question and the scores were tallied. And the winners were . . .

What A Feeling!

The theme for the 1985-86 Homecoming was "Hooray for Hollywood". The first stars to dazzle our eyes were Kim Brooks and Romani Locke, the ninth grade representatives. Next making their debut were Marva Woods and Nechole Murchison, the tenth grade representatives. Representing the eleventh grade were Ginger Taylor and Jami Northern. At the top of the ladder were veteran stars Achele Price, Pam Williams and the young starlet Darnette Lounds. These lovely debutantes represented the senior class. Through artistic talents of members of the different classes, we decorated our field. The freshman were represented by the "Wizard of Oz" followed by Yul Brynner representing the sophomores. The juniors were represented by The Supremes. And finally the seniors saluted Hollywood. Last but definitely not least the senior sponsors of 1985-86. The senior sponsors represented the senior varsity athletes. Although the Warriors were defeated on Homecoming, it was still a festive occasion for everyone involved.

Freshmen

Kim Brooks is the president of her Freshman class. She sets a good example in her spirit and leadership. Kim was a member of Student Council. The Student body is pleased to have Kim represent them.

Romani Locke represented the Freshman class. She is well known and liked throughout her class. She displays beauty, and a good personality.

Sophomores

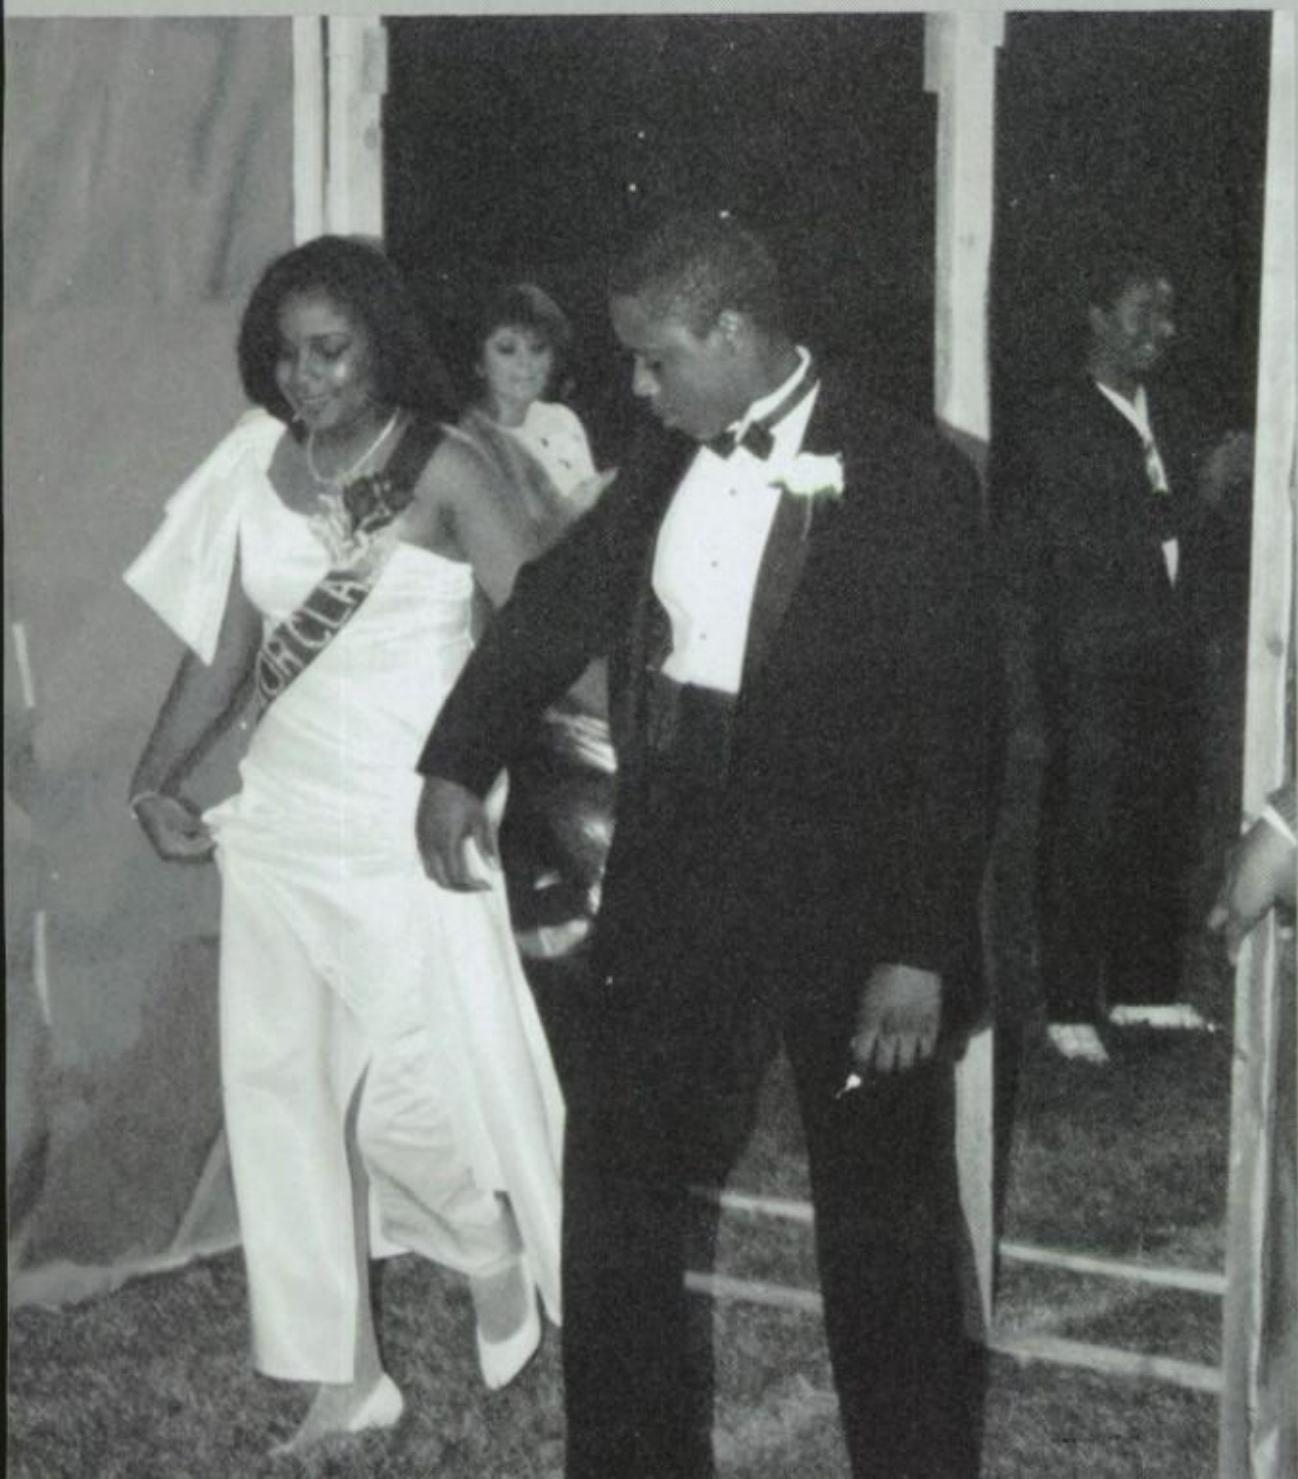

One of the representatives of the Sophomore class is Marva Woods. She is a member of the Senior Beta Club and an active member of the Drill Team. Marva has a style and class all her own.

Nechole Murchison is the treasurer of the sophomore class. She is a member of the drill team, as well as an active member of FCA. As you can see, she shows much spirit as she represents the sophomore class.

Juniors

Ginger Taylor is a very active student of Woodland. She is a member of the Varsity Cheerleading Squad, membership chairman of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes, secretary of the Anchor Club and a member of the Spanish Club. With these involvements who wouldn't want Ginger for a representative.

Jamie Northern is a member of the Drama Club. She gives style and charisma to the Junior Class.

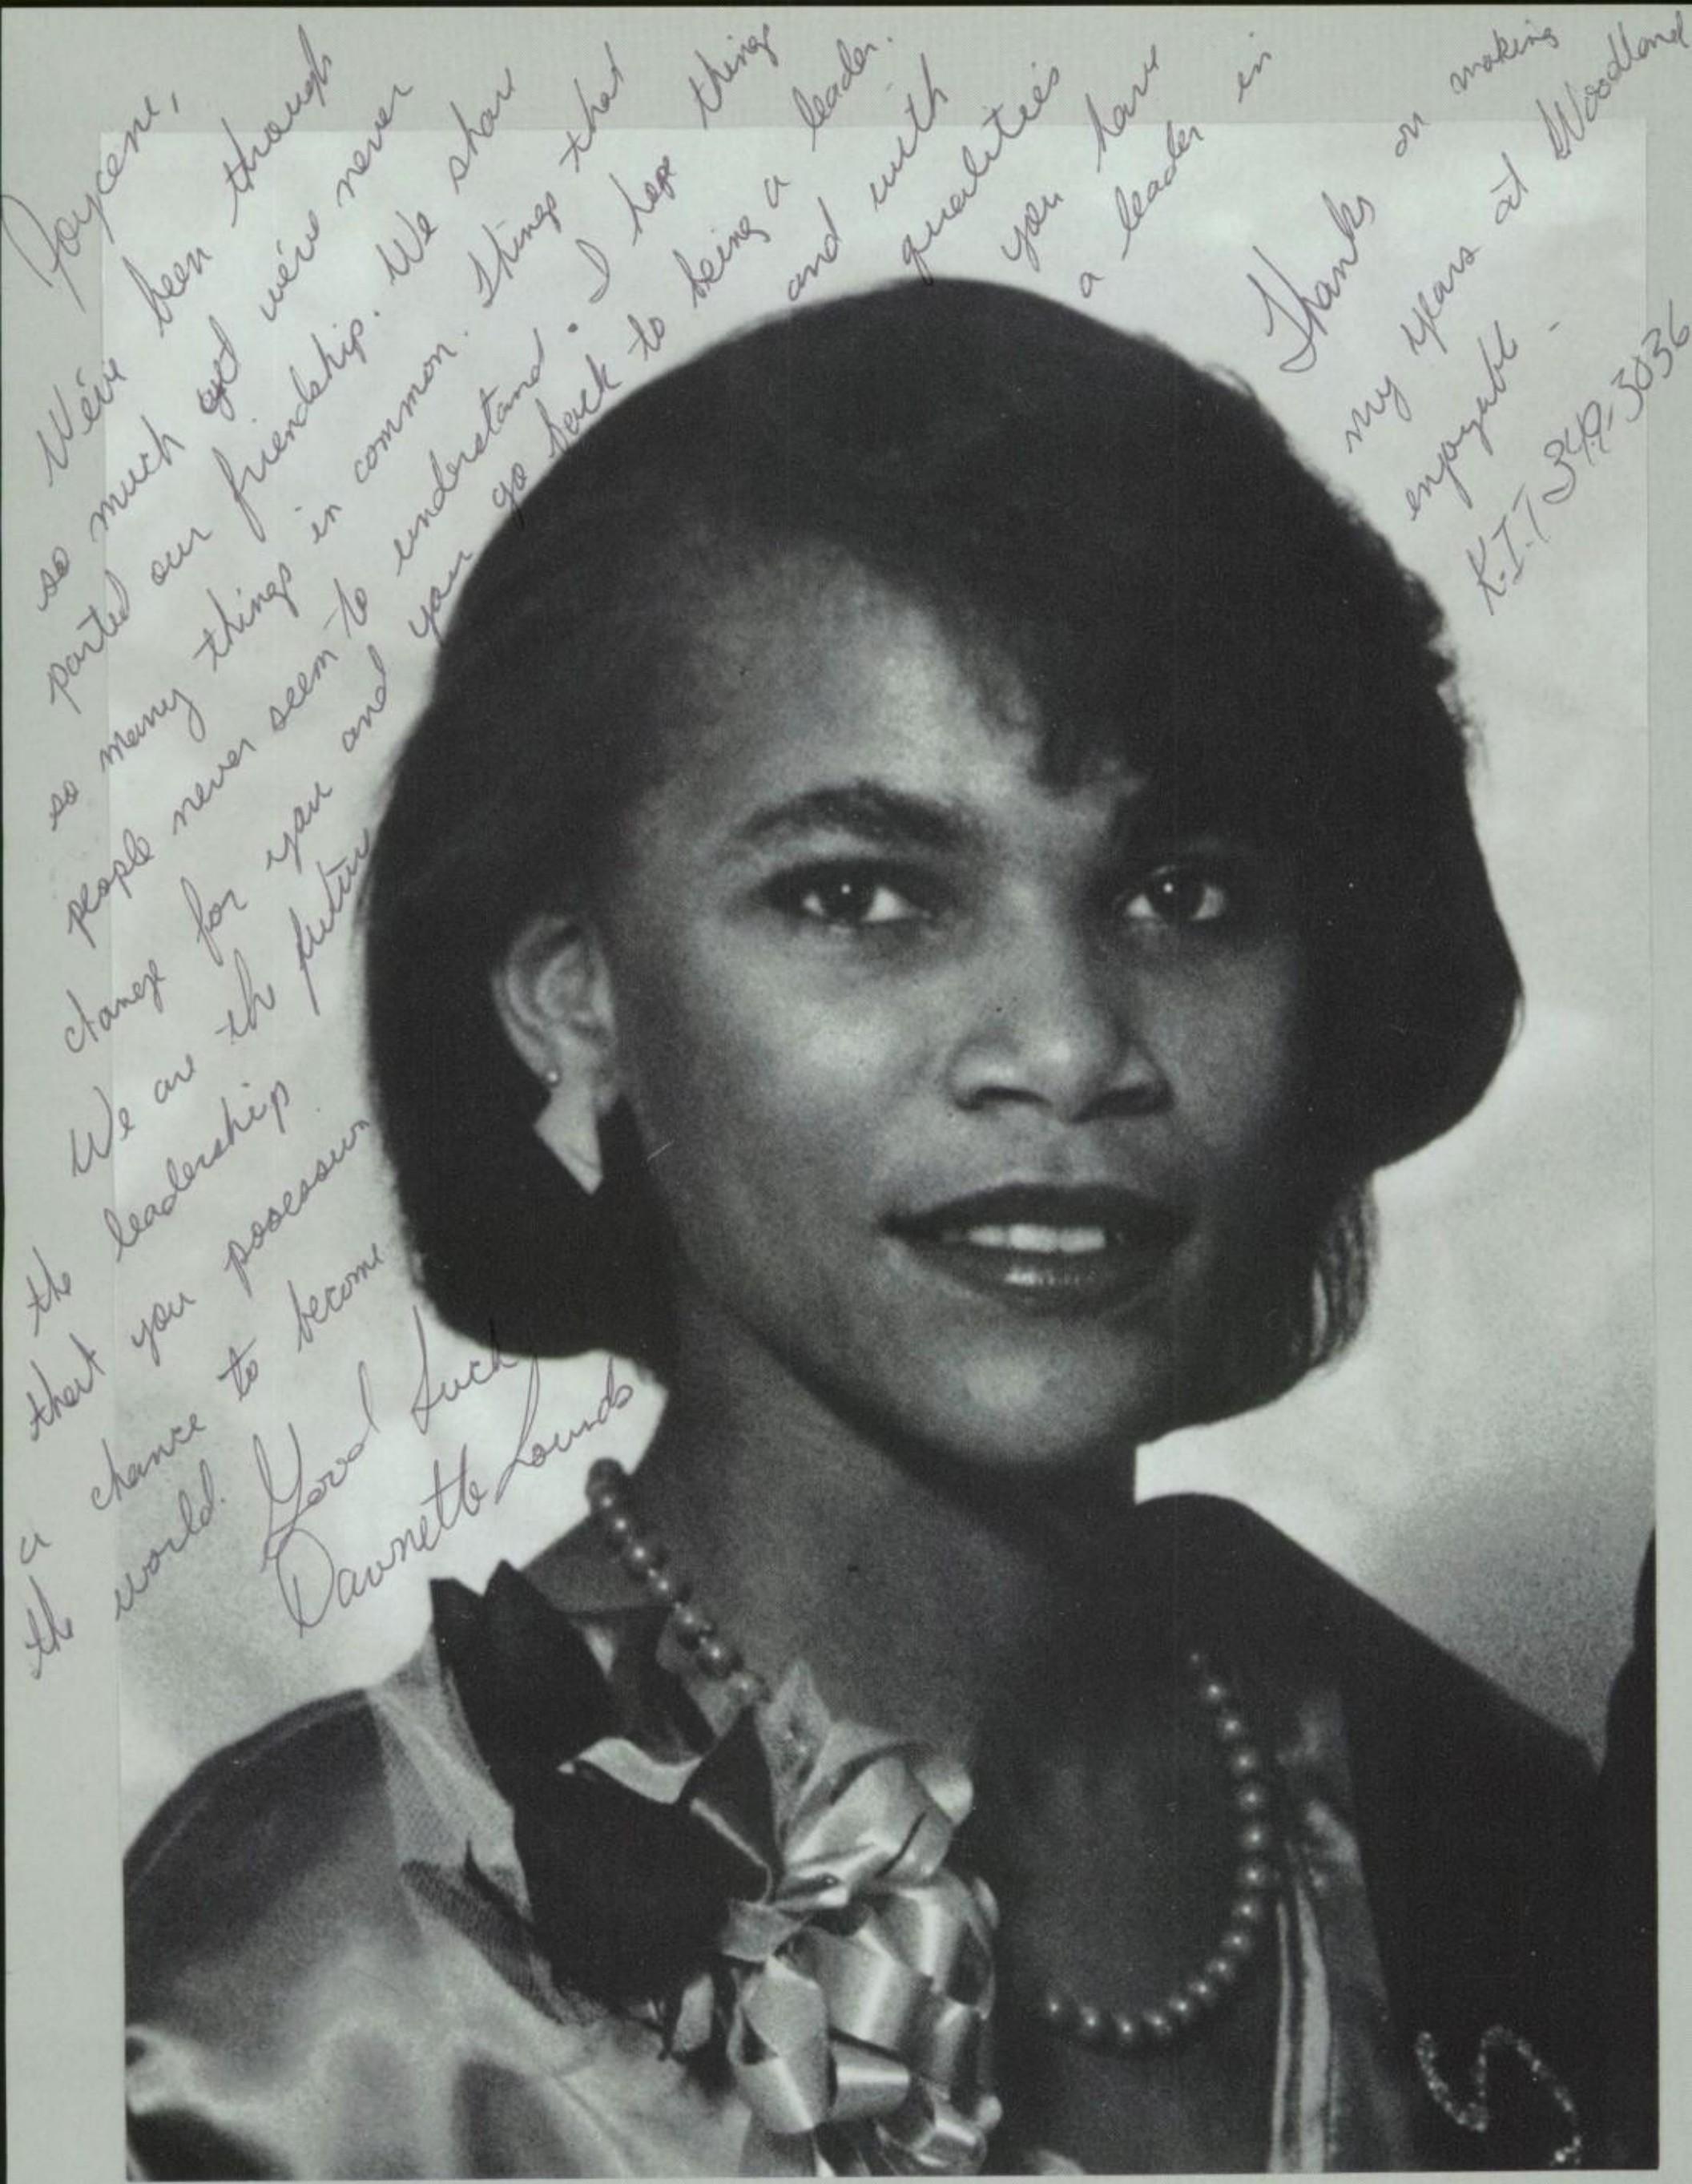

Seniors

Pamela Williams is Pres., of her senior class. She is the tri-editor of Woodland's Annual. She is the Co-Capt. of the 1985-86 majorette squad. Pamela is one of the two chairpersons of the Art Club. She is definitely a school leader and best all around. Her grace and poise enhanced the student body of Woodland High.

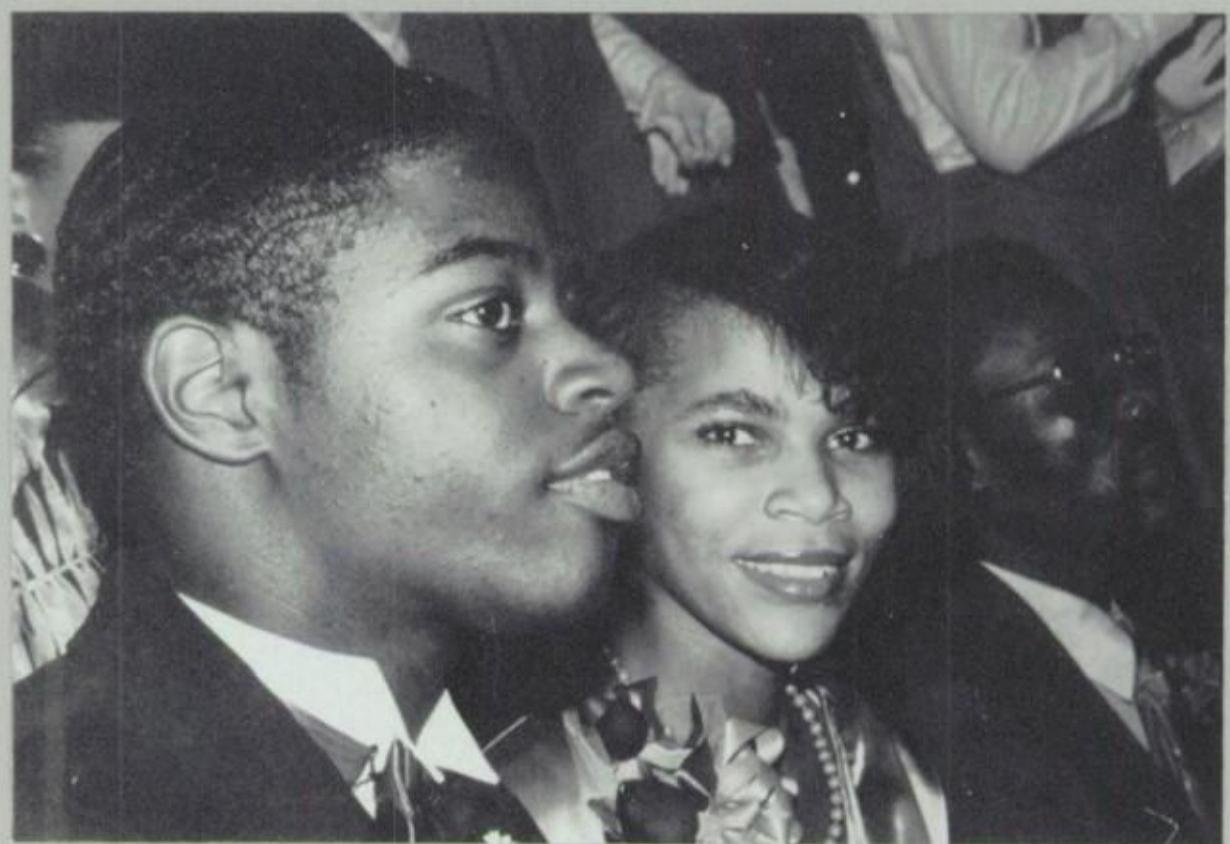

Achele Price is Co-Captain of the Varsity Cheerleading Squad, and President of the Anchor Club. She is a member of the National Beta Club, Annual Staff, and the Art Club. She is most popular in her class. She displayed great school spirit in and out of her cheering uniform. Woodland was proud of her representing the Senior Class.

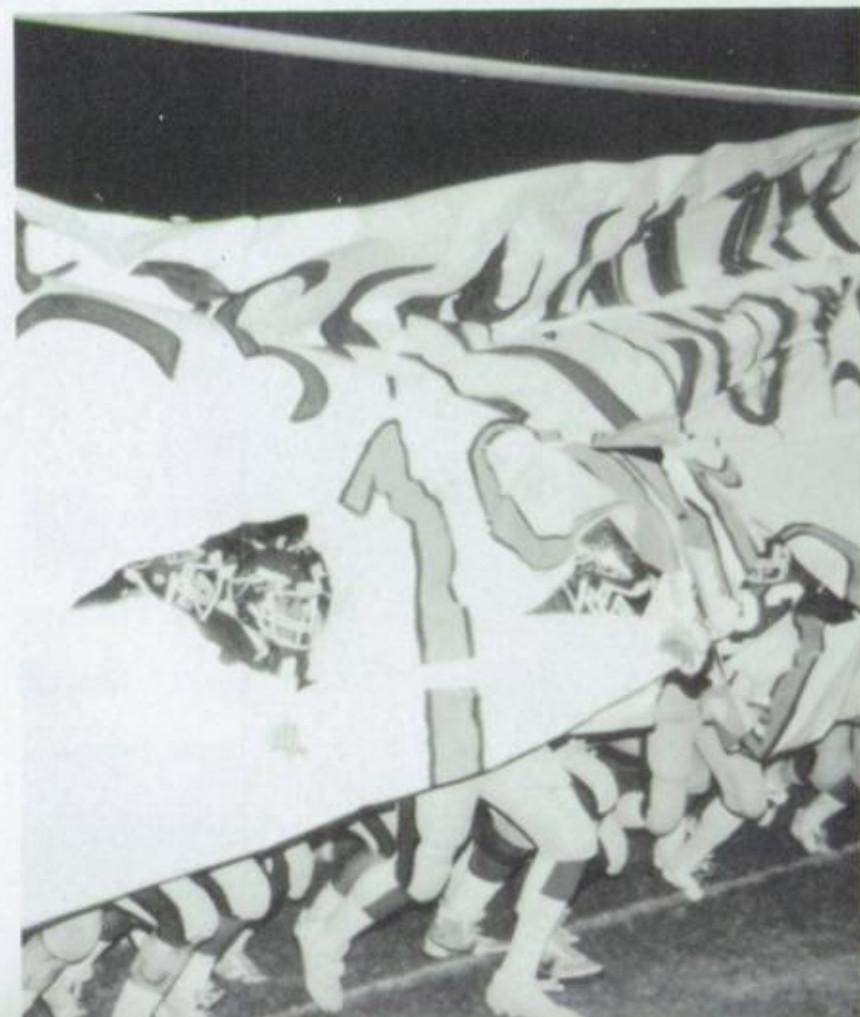

Homecoming Queen 1985

Dawnette Lounds is a member of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes (FCA), is on the track team, and a first Varsity cheerleader. Her warm personality and sense of humor made her well known at Woodland. She is definitely a representable queen for Woodland.

CABARET

Cabaret, that magical word, that mystical sound, heard only by the Woodland Chorale casts its transforming spell over all. It is the one time in the year where dreams really do come true. The cobwebs of the mind are brushed away; the cogs are oiled and begin to move; the ideas spring forth.

A STAR IS BORN . . . on stage . . . before a live audience . . . among our peers! Dancers have their chance to leap, whirl, and turn amid the lights. Singers, shaking with fright, have their time to show the world how good music can sound.

It's the scramble off the stage, the grabbing of the next costume, the heat of excitement when the show is great. It's the confidence one gets from doing his best with the talent given only to him or her.

The dream-plunges one to the depths of his soul with the demand for excellence and lifts one to the pinnacle of success, acceptance, confidence, and STARDOM!!

The Freshman Class brought a renewed feeling to Woodland. As Woodland's largest class, they evoked a wave of enthusiasm in proportion to their size. Dear Joyce,

I have to tell you that you have been one of the best things to happen to me this year. You helped my self-confidence and my ego when I really needed it. Your notes to me in Algebra class brightened up what was very dull (Mrs. Carter). You better remember me when you go on with your life in the air force. You may think that I didn't appreciate your kindness, but I really did. I just didn't take you seriously when you would tell me that you really liked me. Maybe we should have gotten together so you could enjoy this sweet chocolate body. You could have been in Let's say,¹⁵⁹

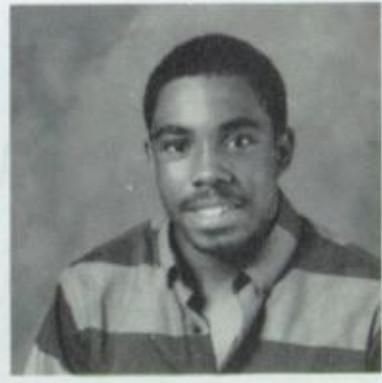

The Sophomore Class exhibited a sense of great maturity and responsibility with their promotion. Their zeal however was not dampened by their new found sophistication as they participated with vigor in pep rallies winning many of the spirit contests. The Sophomore class participated in many activities including a fund raiser to establish money towards next years prom. Such efficient foresight as this shows the promise the class portrays for future years to come.

Scott and Marco, WE NEED THOSE PICTURES! . . . Can you type this for me? . . . No more leaving the room . . . Get Steven to show you how to crop . . . Everyone get to your table and stay there (Ha Ha!) . . . PAM!! . . . When are the pictures going to be developed? . . . Will you write me some copy, Sharmian? . . . Everything has GOT to be sent in by Friday . . . Marco, I need that picture of Mr. Newton! . . . Where is Jodi? . . . Ava, go do the announcements . . . Look, you slum Organizations editor . . . Yvonne, Michael is NOT going to do your section for you! . . . Everything has to be sent in on Monday . . . What about staff pictures?!! . . . We'll send everything in on Tuesday . . . How long has Mrs. Carter been sick? . . . I need to go type . . . We'll send it all in on Wednesday! . . . Who has the cropper? . . . IS THE YEARBOOK GONNA BE BACK ON TIME??!!

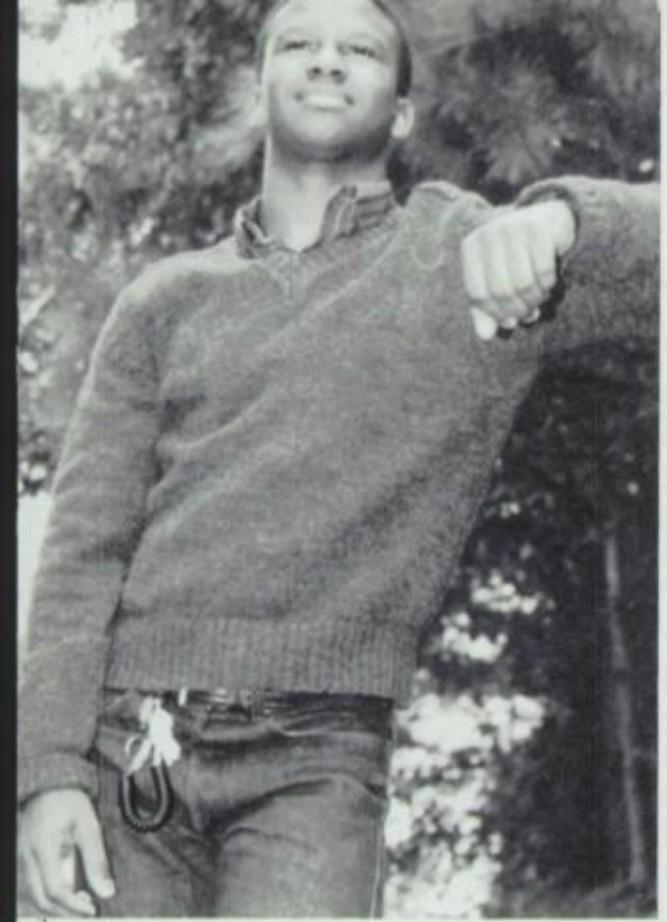

Section Editors: Marco Porcile, Yvonne Terry, Achelle Price, Steven Dedrick, Carmella Brazzle.

My experience as an editor was one I'll never forget. At times I was skeptical of how the yearbook would turn out, but because of the hard work and dedication of the staff
I think it will turn out super. I hope you like it. Love Pamela

Well its over! I must confess that my senior year was undoubtedly the most exciting as well as educational year ever. The year book was at times a bother, however, I was able to do my job as an editor rather effectively. Hopefully the yearbook will turn out the way it was planned if not better! I wish the Trailblazer staffs in the future much luck. Being a member of the Trailblazer staff is a special opportunity that everyone should want to experience. I learned infinitely more this year on the "TBS" and from friends and teachers than I previously learned in any other year!

Yours,
Michael.

Being one of the editors of the Trailblazer has been an experience I would not trade for anything. It is true that sometimes I felt frustrated because deadlines seemed impossible to meet. Patience was also a necessity, as most of the staff members had never previously served on a yearbook staff. As the year progressed, however, and things began to shape up, my outlook brightened. I saw the book begin to take form before my eyes and it was a very satisfying feeling. This yearbook is truly original because it embodies the personalities of all of the different staff members. Having such a diverse group of people on the staff benefitted the book tremendously. New members brought fresh ideas and enthusiastic attitudes that could only serve to update the old preconceptions of what a yearbook could be. Working on the staff, I gained new awareness into the process of running a business (as yearbook production is a business), and learned to handle large responsibilities. Working along with an overall cooperative and responsible staff, I have added in making a yearbook that I am proud of, and that I hope Woodland will be proud of. I wish all the best to next year's editor, Steven Cedrick, and the 1986-'87 Trailblazer staff!

Yours,

Sharmean White

IT'S UP TO YOU

A diploma's very special—
It's like a golden key
That turns the lock on any door
Marked "opportunity"

But one thing to remember
If you want to get inside—
It's up to you to give the nudge
That swings it open wide

And it's up to you to take the lead
Once you're inside the door
To see if what's behind it Is what you've been looking for

Then if it is, you have to mold it
Push it, tug it, too
Till that opportunity becomes
A big success for you

So use your key, but be aware
It's just a key at best
And remember that it's up to you
To go and do the rest

God made a world of His dreams of majestic mountains oceans, and streams, prairies and plains and wooded land. Then paused and thought, "I need someone to stand on top of the mountains, to conquer the seas, explore the plains and climb the trees. Someone to start out small and grow sturdy and strong like a tree." And so

He created boys full of spirit and fun, to explore and conquer, to romp and run, with dirty faces and bandaged skins with courageous hearts and boyish grins. and when He'd completed the task He'd begun, He surely said . . .

"That's a job well done!"

Penny Marie Parlier

It's Finally Here! Today is your long awaited day of graduation. We are thrilled with your accomplishments. (Believe me! We are.) But reminiscing on your school years also brings us some bittersweet feelings—knowing that we cannot undo the past. But, if we haven't influenced you by now, we probably never will.

The quest for wisdom has been compared to a search for hidden treasure. The reward? Understanding the fear of the Lord. Then you will know what is right and good. Your heart will be wise, and knowledge will fill your being—protecting you from harm.

If you keep these teachings in mind, they will prolong your life and bring you success.

But do not think yourself too wise. Only God is all-knowing. Respect His commands and resist evil, for this will bring health and wholeness.

Above all, trust in the Lord completely. Always honor Him, and He will guide your plans.

Nothing is more valuable than wisdom—not money, fame, nor prestige. The world allures us with many things, yet only God's Word endures.

Remember, popularity is fickle, and good looks are soon gone—but a person who reflects God's love will always be admired.

to leave the world a little bit better whether by a flower garden or a redeemed social condition, to know even one life has breathed easier because you lived—this is to have succeeded.

God bless, and keep you

You have blessed our lives in many ways.
Continue to look for God, for hope, and promise.

Success is never final and failure never fatal, it's courage that counts. A person of courage is also full of faith.
Keep Your Faith

God grant me the courage to change the things
I can change, the serenity to except those I cannot,
and the wisdom to know the difference

But God, give me the courage not to give up on what I think is right even though I think it is hopeless.

"It must be borne in mind that the tragedy in life doesn't lie in not reaching your goal. The tragedy lies in having no goal to reach. It isn't a calamity to die with dreams unfulfilled, but it is a calamity not to dream. It is not a disaster to be unable to capture your ideal, but it is a disaster to have no ideal to capture. It is not a disgrace to have no stars to reach for. Not failure, but low aim is sin."

Well its been 12 long years and we are united again for another graduation. I believe I understand you more than anyone else even yourself. No matter what goes on in our lives we always seem to come out on top. Now we've reached the point in our lives where all opportunities are open to us and the world is ours. We must keep in touch ever the years so we can continue to grow together and handle the hardships as one. Don't forget to invite me to the wedding and baby shower just make sure the wedding comes first and the same for me.

Love you
Robin
